Balance transfers are subject to credit line availability. If the total requested to be transferred exceeds your available credit, we may process full and partial transfers beginning with the single largest transfer possible. Transferring balances may take 3 to 4 weeks and will not automatically close your other accounts. You should continue to make payments on those accounts, as needed, to keep them current. Transferring a balance subject to a billing dispute may cancel your dispute rights with that creditor. Interest will be charged on purchases and balance transfers after the 1.99% APR introductory period unless you pay your entire new balance (including transferred balances) in full each month by the payment due date. You may not transfer balances from other NPB accounts. Balance transfers on new accounts are processed no earlier than 10 calendar days after we mail your new credit card. You may withdraw your request by calling New Peoples Bank within that 10-day period.
